
Breathing Fire

By Sarah Yi-mei Tsiang

Orca Book Publishers, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 176 x 108 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. When Allys mom dies, Ally is left with no family, no friends and no future. Put into foster care at the age of fifteen, she has less than $200 to her name and nothing left to lose. When Ally meets Tate, a busking fire breather, she starts to see a new life for herself as a street performer. Ally decides to run away from her foster home, but her problems follow her. Hiding her age, sleeping on the streets and avoiding fights with other buskers, Ally discovers that theres more to life as a fire-breathing busker than not getting burned.
