Xulon Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Worship? Check. Compassion? Check. Are worship and compassion two separate experiences in your life s journey? In his book Kissing the Face of God, Dale Walker writes of the extraordinary things God does when we live a life of compassion given as an expression of worship. Using abundant and engaging examples from his own life and others , Walker shows in a practical way how acts of compassion flow out of true worship. We follow Walker as he ministers in a nursing home in New Mexico, at a Kingdom party for street people in Hong Kong, to a prostitute dying of HIV-AIDS in Zambia, and to orphans living in a cemetery in the Philippines. In this groundbreaking book, Walker guides us to look where Jesus is looking, demonstrating how to find His presence in the suffering and hurting ones - the least of these - through a worship that changes the world. Kissing the Face of God has literally changed my concept of what worship is and the unexpectedly powerful ways God can flow through it! A must-read for every worship leader, missionary, and pastor. - Tommy Walker, Worship Leader for Christian Assembly, Los Angeles . .reading this book will be a defining moment. - Delane Bailey-Herd, Project Manager, Food for the Poor, Haiti A full-time pastor for thirty-three years, Dale Walker is senior pastor of Heart for the World Church in Las Cruces, New Mexico. He and his wife Sharon founded Heart for the World Ministries, a missions organization through which they give their very best to those who have the very least. They have six children and eight grandchildren. You can listen to Dale s sermons at.
