Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A paranormal memoir, and useful strategies for intuitive living. Imagine sitting across from your life insurance broker, and when queried about your mental health, you want to blurt out: I see dead people, but there is nothing wrong with me. More than one boyfriend ran for the hills because I saw future events, such as a fire that endangered the lives of two children. Then again, I once passed on a call-back for an acting audition because the producer had a creepy vibe. He was later convicted of murdering his lead actress. I heard my boyfriend s name before we exchanged the first words. My dead cat visited and scared a friend away. I scheduled a psychiatric evaluation when I saw the events of September 11th on a beach in August of 2001; I thought I had to be insane. A decade after his death, our late landlord demanded we foster rescue dogs even though I prefer cats. Holding someone s briefcase revealed a future drug overdose; reading keys announced an unlikely pregnancy. Viewing a rental property comes with a detailed report of the previous tenant s history; divorce, disease, and depression linger in a space like muck. Telepathy has proven more efficient than text messages or shopping lists. And yes, a teacup levitated across a table and was set on the floor without spilling the tea. The paranormal is my normal. It wasn t easy to accept because seeing things is only popular in the plotline of a Halloween movie; rarely in real life. These are true stories, and sound advice how to navigate the paranormal without questioning your sanity. Let me take you for a ride.
