Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .mandatory power to the finding of a Board is that if, at any time before or after a Board has made its report and recommendation, both parties to the dispute agree in writing to be bound by the recommendation of the Board in the same manner as parties are bound in the case of a reference to arbitration on the order of a court of record, the recommendation shall be made a rule of the court on application of either party, and shall be enforceable in like manner. Canadian courts, however, have hesitated to regard such an agreement as constituting a rule of court. An application for a Board must be made by a party to the dispute in writing and be accompanied by a statement setting forth the parties to the dispute, its nature and cause, an estimate of the number of persons affected, and...
