Leconte, 2009. Book Condition: new. Roma, 2009; br., pp. 160, cm 14x18. Famiglie deflagrate e desolati interni quotidiani nel cuore di uno scenario urbano iperrealistico. C'è chi fissa la televisione e chi non sa nemmeno chi è Paolo Limiti. Gente che si inventa un nome e si inventa storie. Uomini che se ne vanno, padri che se ne vanno, donne che se ne vanno, donne che restano e ingombrano. Persone che stanno per dire ti amo o il suo contrario e che incessantemente si chiedono cosa caspita significhi. L'infanzia che si riaffaccia urgente come unica possibile libertà. Poi c'è il tempo della malattia e di una morte scampata. L'amore di oggi e quello di ieri. I non lo so. Una, due fughe all'estero. E infine un saluto. Una promessa. Un approdo. Perché la ricerca di sé si plachi un momento. Per poi ricominciare scalmanandosi ancora in uno stile febbrile come le vite frettolose che racconta senza fretta. Rimane un io narrante dissestato ma vigile. Al punto da minacciare continuamente la diserzione.
