Following a breach of Moral Law, Justin Maisling is forced to immigrate from his homeworld in the Homestead United Systems to a star system under the control of the Commission for Interstellar Development and Commodities Exchange. With luck, its easy to make money in the Exchange; its even easier to end up destitute. Fortunately for Justin, Aki Spaceworks Group is looking for people with his particular skill set and a desperate need for a steady job. Time and again, Justin proves himself capable against automated attack drones and a competitor with a high-energy weapon. He comes to enjoy the respect of the ships crew, a promotion to team leader and the admiration of his family. Over time, the job becomes increasingly hazardous with each derelict ship the Insertion Team boards. However, there is a war going on and the company insists that they take advantage of the new opportunities which means Justin and his team must soldier on. Regardless of all his triumphs amidst chaos, the company expects more from Justin. To prove he is a Company Man, he must...
