The officers of the American Army having been generally taken from the citizens of America, possess high veneration for the character of that illustrious Roman, Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus, and being resolved to follow his example, by returning to their citizenship, they think they may, with propriety. Denominate themselves the Society of the Cincinnati. The following principles shall be immutable, and form the basis of the Society of the Cincinnati: An incessant attention to preserve inviolate those exalted rights of. Human nature, for which they have fought and bled, and without which the high rank of a rational being, is a curse instead of a blessing.
