Cheyenne is the ultimate bad girl, and she makes no apologies. She's been in and out of so many foster homes she lost count. Nowadays she lives on the streets, and has been for a solid year. On her eighteenth birthday she happens upon a women's MMA gym. Cash is the son of the owner. He becomes Cheyenne's trainer, determined to make her one of the best fighters. While Cheyenne fights her inner demons, Cash fights his attraction to her. It's strictly prohibited to fraternize with fighters, even if you are the boss's son. Cheyenne has a life she's always wanted, and on her terms. She wants nothing more than to feel loved, wanted and to belong somewhere. She too fights the attraction knowing a lot is at stake if they follow through. What will happen if they take things too far? Will Cheyenne's career be over before it gets started? Or will she fight to have it all?.
