The question of the daily menu is one of the most important ones that faces the housewife. What food shall she give her family to eat? In what proportion shall she give these foods to meet the individual needs of each member of the group? Food a Necessity of Life. Nature has provided no substitute for food. Food is absolutely necessary to our life. Man must eat to live. Common experience shows us that if the body is denied food for long, it wastes away, and finally death results. Life nourishes best where there is an abundant and suitable food supply. So well recognized is this importance of food that in making up the family budget, for moderate incomes, the largest proportion of the income is for food, and, if need be, as much as two thirds of the income may be spent on food. The housewife, who in most cases does the buying for the family, thus has a very large share of the income to spend, and this...
