BUILDING A BETTER INFECTIOUS DISEASE SURVEILLANCE SYSTEM FOR CHINA

Lei Zhang

Building a Better Infectious
Disease Surveillance
System for China
An evaluation from a political perspective

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: VDM Verlag Dr. Müller | An evaluation from a political perspective | The sudden outbreak of SARS in 2003 exposed many weaknesses of China's national disease reporting system and consequently leads to the establishment of National Infectious Disease Monitoring Information System. Although the new system provides timely and live reports of infectious diseases, miss-diagnosis and under-reporting often undermine the quality of the reported data. Disease information flow largely remains one-way through the system's information hierarchy...
