Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1833 edition. Excerpt: .there is an end of the business. You now receive the Danish and Swedish Dictionaries of Wolffe and Serenius: the latter (particularly with both parts together) is a very scarce book, and cost, I confess, rather more than I expected; but I question if another copy is to be had in London. Who is Malone? --Where are my Cursory Criticisms P No. 12430 (Peter the Great) in Lackingtons catalogue was sold; and so, unfortunately was the Swedish grammar, which I despair of recovering. No. 12433, is a heap of trash: you had an article or two from it some years since. I thank you for the errata in Robin Hood, which I could scarcely have believed. You need not have been afraid to indulge conjectures, as it would be sufficient to point out the corrupt or suspicious passage. Minot, I am persuaded, is more correct; and surely both the text and the typography have some merit. A few inedited poems of Hoccleve have been splendidly printed in a thin quarto by Mr. George Mason; but they, like every other composition of that writer, are mere trash. I have already asked, perhaps, if you wish for Burghers poems. The ballad of Lenore has undergone three different translations: the last of which, by the honorable Mr. Spencer, is a most pompous folio, with several beautiful engravings, and the German text on the opposite page: --price one guinea. The laureats production is eighteen pence. Have you yet...
