Audible Studios on Brilliance, United States, 2016. CD-Audio. Book Condition: New. Unabridged. 171 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New. Whether breathlessly enthusiastic serenely calm, or really concentrating on their personal zombie issues, Crane s happy cast explore the complexities behind personal satisfaction. You Must Be This Happy to Enter exists in a world very much like our own but infused with more joy and magic. It s a place where the happy are jailed, the sincere cause confusion, and pop culture so seamlessly melds with real life that characters can walk right out of the television and come live with you. Crane s third collection, aims to convey something fresh in literature: utter sincerity. With a trademark mix of hyperreality, humor, and heartfelt emotion, You Must Be This Happy to Enter asks readers to connect with the loopy ways of her characters. Because even though they re occasionally severed from reality, they still seem to know something you don t about keeping upbeat in a strange and crumbling environment. The opening story features a woman who can speak only in exclamations. Betty may be a zombie on a reality TV show, but she s a woman willing to work on herself. Sally is just plain old freaking happy. (You shouldn t even read this story.) Another woman gives birth to a baby who turns into Ethan Hawke, but by golly, she s not going to let that stop her from being a good parent. What happens when a town turns transparent overnight? Do people run away just because they re basically naked? No. What would you do if your perfect man was jailed for being happy? What would you do if you had words on your forehead? You d use it to your advantage, that s what! How does...
