Back from the Brink: True Stories and Practical Help for Overcoming Depression and Bipolar Disorder (Paperback)

By Graeme Cowan

New Harbinger Publications, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. If you have severe depression or bipolar disorder, you may find it difficult to take that first step toward recovery. You aren't alone. In our society, many people with depression or bipolar disorder do not seek therapy or medical treatment due to the stigma that surrounds mental illness. Even people in progressive communities may not want to admit that they are on antidepressants or mood-balancing medications. Isn't it time we changed the way we thought about these illnesses? Centered on interviews with several people from of all walks of life, including Bob Boorstin, the director of public policy at Google, former tennis star Cliff Ritchey, and talk-show host Trisha Goddard, Back from the Brink offers people with depression and bipolar disorder real hope and real advice, as well as practical tools for putting what they've learned into practice in recovering from their symptoms. In addition to real interviews, the book also includes chapters that outline practical treatment and medication information that are based on recent research and a major global survey. This book came about in part because the author, Graeme Cowan, went through...

Reviews

The most effective publication i ever study. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. You wont sense monotony at whenever you want of your time (that's what catalogs are for concerning in the event you ask me).

-- Prof. Erin Larson I

This book might be worth a read, and superior to other. Of course, it really is engage in, still an interesting and amazing literature. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
