Facing the Star-Gate: Exploring the Dimension of Faith (Paperback)

By R H Brassington

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Raised from the dead with a message from Jesus - still relevant for today! The author uses a local event which took place in Chesterfield, Derbyshire, England in 1910 - making it of local interest to Derbyshire folk. It s a story about a man called William Sanderson who was miraculously raised from the dead and consequently cured of his life threatening illness. This particular account becomes a catalyst for thought, and acts as a driving theme throughout the book as the author investigates the dimension of faith. Facing the Star-gate engages Christian apologetics by taking a holistic approach to science and the Bible. It is written simply by an ordinary man for ordinary folk who may be desperately trying to make sense of Christianity in today s fast changing and confusing world - or just simply to grab faith and get on with it! The book, uncompromising on the fundamental teaching on the bible s message of redemption, pulls no punches and makes no apologies when taking on the big guys in the science arena. Prepared to defend...
