

A is for Almanac: Complete Lessons to Teach the Use of References Sources in the Library Media Center, Grades K-6

By Annie Weissman, Susan L. Garvin

Neal-Schuman Publishers Inc. Mixed media product. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A is for Almanac: Complete Lessons to Teach the Use of References Sources in the Library Media Center, Grades K-6, Annie Weissman, Susan L. Garvin, Chock-full of librarian-perfected lessons and worksheets, this book and accompanying CD contain ready-to-go lesson plans, worksheets, activities, and more for teaching students how to use both print and electronic atlases, almanacs, dictionaries, online catalogs, and encyclopedias. You'll find lessons for each grade level, emphasizing either science or social studies. And each lesson has been developed using Madeline Hunter's EEI (Essential Elements of Instruction) lesson plan format. Lessons are well scaffolded for grade-to-grade continuity and the authors have even included high-interest games and contests to engage and motivate students. Designed to encourage collaboration between librarians and classroom teachers, the lessons can be easily correlated to state and district standards. The accompanying CD includes all of the worksheets, games, and contests, as well as posters for your library. All of which can be customized for your own collection, library layout, call numbers, and curriculum.

Reviews

The publication is simple in go through preferable to fully grasp. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
