This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).

Paperback. Condition: New. Jane Peers (illustrator). 212 pages. Paulies Web distils the tragedies, comedies and ironies of womens lives not just behind bars but out in society. In it charismatic Paulie Smith - rebel, ex-teacher and emerging writer - comes out of prison after serving six years. . In the next few days she relished her freedom but struggles to adapt to the scary realities of life on the out. Paulie reflects on her life in prison and her first few weeks inside and the four very different women whom she first met in the white prison van. Theres Queenie, the old bag- lady who sees giants and angels, Maritza who disguises her pain with an ultra-conventional life, and drug addict Lilah, the spoiled apple of her mothers eye. Then there is the tragedy of the abused Christine - the one with the real scars inside and out. The touching stories of these women, past and present, mingle as Paulie - free now after six years - goes looking her significant friends, who have now been on the out for some years and are - Paulie hopes - remaking their lives.
