Excerpt from President Lincoln and the Chicago Memorial of Emancipation: A Paper Read Before the Maryland Historical Society, December 12th, 1887 The great civil war which, for four years, threatened the destruction of the American Union, was preceded by a movement more radical and important than the political struggle between the Northern and Southern States, over the question, whether Freedom should be national and Slavery sectional, or Slavery national and Freedom sectional. The debates upon the com promises of the Constitution and upon the comparative profit of free and slave labor were secondary to the discussion of the moral issue, as to the rightfulness of slave-holding. That discussion commenced shortly after the war of the Revolution. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
