SUBLIMATION: A COLLECTION OF POEMS (PAPERBACK)

Partridge India, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .-While the world talks about hunger, pain, parting, and staying in wait for instant sex, I quietly enter my poetry-subtle, ambivalent, and erotic- (anonymous). Poems in this book revolve around the themes of love, travel, sunsets, and seasons. It switches from extreme feminist viewpoints to humanist and existentialist perspective. The book will leave you with a feeling of deep longing for something profound. It captures the things in and around the life of a person who is trying to understand the life, someone who asks why things happen in a certain fashion and if there is meaning behind everything that occurs. A collection of poems framed in simple words to portray complex ideas and imageries with a deeper meaning. The author has named the book Sublimation because these poems are the productive and beautiful expression of her anger, her frustration, her pain, her sadness towards this ambiguous process of existence.
