Genre Writing teaches authors how to get past the publisher s gatekeeper. This clear and concise guide reveals conventions of genre, which includes categories such as mystery, horror, science fiction, romance, fantasy, and thriller. By following the standards, a writer has a greater chance of a manuscript s acceptance. The book discusses one of the main reasons publishers reject manuscripts. One chapter describes what belongs in the first sentence and paragraph of a book, as well as on the first page. Another chapter covers writing powerful sentences. Reading Genre Writing is an important step in an author s strategy to get published.
