LAP Lambert Academic Publishing Feb 2015, 2015. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 221x154x25 mm. Neuware - This book is a fundamental guide for academics and practitioners in the construction arbitration sphere. The book scrutinizes the main features, and substantive characteristics of construction contracts. It is a reference to states' agreements with private foreign entities. It subjects law and practice in the MENA region to clarify critical issues such as delay and extension of time, LDs, and many other issues relating to arbitration. Authors present useful insights on a number of complex topics relating to states' infrastructure agreements. This monograph analyzes interim measures in international arbitration from international perspectives. It highlights comparative legislation and different institutional rules. It scrutinizes Egyptian arbitration law as it is adopting UNCITRAL Model Law. Authors capture with authoritative structure the pulse and dynamics of the legal framework of construction arbitration. They clarify special difficulties such as the time bar in the FIDIC forms of contracts and in ICSID arbitration, the role of the engineer in construction contracts, and multi-party arbitration in construction agreements. Authors also provide useful insights to PPPs agreements. 356 pp. Englisch.
