Humanistic psychology made a significant leap forward in attempting to study healthy minds and what makes them healthy. Dr. Sprunger has taken the third major step, bringing the study of the human mind fully within the realm of spiritual reality. Spiritual Psychology attempts to unify two great fields of human thought and experience: psychology and religion. It sets forth a series of basic principles for the study of the mind within the great, dynamic spiritual setting in which it functions. Dr. Sprunger sums up a lifetime of experience, scholarship, teaching, and counseling. He writes for those who are thoughtful and inquiring, especially for those who counsel and minister to others with regard to the problems and opportunities of daily living.
