Our parents had a fancy for names terminating in a, but after christening me Maria, their memory proved unequal to the strain of four daughters, and they had recourse to novels for suggestions. Hence a Belinda, an Olivia, and a Pamela. The boys answered to the more every-day titles of William and Jack. About our ages there were two points to remember. First, that Pamela was barely seventeen, and the youngest; secondly, that we were said to be the only annuals on record ever known to become perennials.
