Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Excerpt from The Grip of Gold: There! - there it is! Its a woman - its her! The crowd surged forward yet another foot nearer the great iron gates that parted it from the living mystery. Then all was deathly still; breathing and heart-beats seemed to be suspended; eyes strained to see through that blue-black twilight of the cypress avenue. Nothing - nothing - yes! There, only a few paces down, as if it had risen from the solid earth, stood a woman's figure. With one long white hand she held together the ends of a fleecy white wrapper flung around her dark head; the other shaded her eyes, as she looked back at them. Never moving, she stood like a woman waiting for something to which no one else in all Felcote could give a name. They might almost feel, without seeing, the fathomless, far-away smile of contempt in her eyes eat into them. They were edging silently back, awed by the frozen stillness of one woman. And then, as if a crowd of Felcote people were no more to her than a...
