Xulon Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book is about finding genuine happiness. Your search is over. Jesus gives us the keys that open the door of happiness. The primary message of this book is that when you pick up each key and follow God's lead, you will find the happiness you are seeking. Karla Keller Schulman leaves the reader with hope that you can have happiness despite painful circumstances in your life. She shares her experience and how, with God's help, she overcame adversities in her own life, finding peace rather than harboring fear and bitterness. Karla Keller Schulman is a Christian author and published poet. She has a Bachelor of Science degree in Behavioral Science from the University of Houston - Clear Lake. Her study of psychology, sociology and anthropology gives her insight into individuals, social groups and cultures. Additionally, she studied the Bible at Abilene Christian University. Professionally, Karla worked for NASA's space shuttle program for over 20 years as a business operations analyst, technical writer and editor. Praise from readers of The Keys to Happiness: 3 Simple Questions That Will Change Your Life I really, really, REALLY love it. This book speaks to me. I was hooked from the start. I already want more than one copy to give to family and friends. Linda Breaux This book is enjoyable and insightful. It provides guidance and comfort to people as they strive to handle the good and bad in life in a world where it is hard for us to accept our problems. Karen Guest This book is a great testimony of the author. I have read many of her writings. The love and warmth she creates will bring her readers closer to...
