Brand New Book  Print on Demand .econd chances don t come along that often. But when they do, you grab them with both hands. And hold on tight. Perfect strangers don t just leave you a share in their business. Do they? And even if they do, surely the rightful owner won t just take it lying down.? Abigail Fischer is about to find out. When a mysterious letter arrives informing her that she s inherited a controlling interest in a thriving construction firm Abigail thinks it must be a mistake. Or a sick joke. That is until she s confronted by her new, very angry and very reluctant business partner. Handsome as sin but determined to be rid of her, Cain Parrish is everything Abigail desires-and most fears. Forced to uproot from her safe but dead-end job to help run the firm, Abigail is quickly drawn to her dominant partner. Attuned to her most secret desires, and able to meet them effortlessly, he quickly finds his way past her defences. But Abigail is not what she seems. Astute in business...
