

How Ilana Found Happiness

By David Lerner

Paperback. Condition: New. Karen Lieblein (illustrator). 22 pages. When her mama asks her to find happiness, Ilana never expected to set off on a journey of a lifetime. While searching for happiness in Times Square, on Broadway and Fifth Avenue wearing her footie pajamas, Ilana makes some very valuable discoveries. She learns that money cant buy happiness; Owning a gazillion things wont bring it; That fame is nice, but it may not result in happiness. And, believe it or not, even Santa cant deliver it. But Santa was able to show her the way So when she finally recognizes that happiness has been inside her all the time, she learns what to do to let it out. Young readers will enjoy her funny escapades and will benefit from the lesson that changed Ilanas life. Ilanas Manhattan adventures take her from Times Square to the NY Public Library, up Fifth Avenue--all the time searching for happiness. The hardened characters she meets cant help her much, because they cant help themselves. The tale told in rhyme ends happily for Ilana and her mother. This item ships from multiple locations.
