SAND SACK: SINGING SANDS SING NO SECRETS (PAPERBACK)

Technology Management Associates, Incorporated, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .BioFables: Book 3, Series 1 Ages 10-adult What s cooler than a geodesic tent? Igloos! (They have the same basic overall shape). Also cool: learning that the straight lines of their family tent s triangles and an igloo s square-ish blocks of snow are arranged to make surfaces that are rounded. What s hot? Climbing sand dunes in summer. Mallory s seven-year-old twin sister, Melody, enjoys the heat. Mallory? Not so much. He and his Dad head back down the dune while his Mom and sister continue their upward trek. In the shade of a small bush, Mallory discovers more than cooler sand as he settles into a little trench that his dog Rufus helped to dig. When Mallory and his father visit the local Indiana Dunes police station to turn in their find, they learn why some dunes are called living. The police sergeant explains. If you bury something near the bottom of a sand dune and it stays buried for many years, chances are you won t find it in the same location. That s because grains of sand are blown in the direction of air currents; over time, the sand dune shifts, making it look as though it moved by itself (and therefore living). Over the next several months, the family learns the history behind Mallory s accidental discovery, but for now, the police sergeant thanks the father and son with coupons for free ice cream at the local shop that the whole family can enjoy. Melody is mildly interested in the living dunes explanation, but she s even more curious about how the dunes got there in the first place. Flat sandy beaches are one thing, but...
