

Non-State Actors and Weapons of Mass Destruction: A Study of the Correlation

By Reshmi Kazi

KW Publishers, New Delhi, India, 2012. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. The probability of non-state actors acquiring and using weapons of mass destruction against vulnerable non-combatants have remained a worrisome threat since the turn of the century. It is just not enough to have heightened concerns about the threat of a probable CBRN attack by violent non-state actors. A sound policy would include concerted efforts to substantially dwell on an important question: What factors drive violent terrorist groups like the Al Qaida to seek the most fearsome weapons? Printed Pages: 20.
