Excerpt from The Phantom Caravan The ?ames of a million sires and dames in the blood of your pulses run; Of a million ?ames to feed and serve, how can you serve but one? Their prides are yours; their loves and their lusts, their hopes and their hates are your own; You are the fruit that their lions have bred, the ?ower of the seed they have sown. Their lives are spun as the threads of your cloak, through the warp and the woof of your Whole; Your hands are theirs and your eyes are theirs and your Mould and your Self and your Soul. The dreams they dreamed and the fights they fought and the prayers that their lips have prayed Shall be your dreams and shall be your prayers; your fights are the fights they made. The lives they lived and the deaths they died you shall live and die again; In you is the seed of a million hopes of a million maids and men.
