Dear homeschooling mom, I confess that I began creating hygge homeschooling moments quite by accident. All I really wanted was something to help my son and I get back into the rhythm of homeschooling after our Christmas break, when neither of us felt like starting again. But even when I didn't know what I was doing, adding those moments began to transform my day. And once I discovered hygge, and began to be on purpose about it, it's hard to find the words to describe what a profound difference it makes. This book is a quick and easy read and a challenge to try hygge homeschooling for 30 days in a row. But it also contains an exercise to help you uncover your family's hygge happiness superpower, a planner so you can choose each day just how to you want to add the hygge, and a journal so you can keep track of what you loved about each day. The challenge ends in 30 days, but the book is connected to a page on my website where you can download and print extra pages, and there are plain ones and pages with pictures, so you can mix it up if you want. Thank you for considering my book. I hope it gives you some great ideas! Love, Jeanine.
