Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How do you remain at peace while you fight the battles of life? The definition of Peace (Shalom) is nothing missing and nothing broken. The process of getting and living free involves some conflict. The conflict isn't with another - it's within you. Explore the territory that is your life. Confront and overcome the enemies that would have you remain a victim. Live fully the adventure of discovering yourself, the true you. Gideon Coddling's PEACE WARS is an empowering book. He reveals the deeper meanings behind names and events, giving readers glimpses into themselves and revealing ways to attain inner peace. In Scripture, the Israelites fought battles against seven nations before they could dwell in their promised land. The names of the nations they fought symbolize the main characteristics of the battles and struggles you may be fighting daily. Each of these nations holds keys to reaching your destiny today. God wants you to live in freedom and rest. The children of Israel had to fight some battles before they could rest...
