Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.As I sat writing my story, I asked myself two questions. Why am I writing this and whom am I writing this for? Actually, there are many reasons. For me it was cathartic and helped me heal and realize my life was worth something. I hope that those dealing with any form of cancer will find my story helpful and family members and friends will become more aware of the difficulties we face during our fight for survival. For most of us it is a long, arduous, and painful journey. I found there were many pitfalls along the road I traveled and I pray no one else makes the same mistakes I made. I found that courage, determination, and persistence were all very important in the battle waged against me as I journeyed towards survival. During those years after cancer I became very aware that nearly every family in this country has been touched by cancer in one way or another and if by writing my story I could help even one person then I had achieved my goal. In my selfishness I asked why me? Later I was able to answer that question with why not me? Why am I so special that I should not have adversary in my life? When cancer struck it almost took everything from me. I can only say how grateful I am that God needed me for something and laugh as I recall what a good friend said during those dark and frightening days. God will punish us and leave her with us! she laughed as tears poured down her face. Thank goodness He listened to her. Up to this moment...
