Reviews

The most effective publication i at any time go through. This is certainly for all those who statte that there had not been a worthy of looking at. Its been printed in an extremely straightforward way which is merely soon after i finished reading this publication where basically changed me, change the way in my opinion.

Excerpt: . . . DESCRIPTION OF THE CHALICE. The magnificent chalice which was presented to Archbishop Williams is a work of art. It is studded with precious stones, is about twelve and one-half inches in height, and of gothic design. The cup is surrounded for nearly three-quarters of its height by an elaborate device of filagree work in relief, the conception of which is most beautiful. Between the cup and the base is a four-cornered knob, at the extreme ends of which are four rare and beautiful jewels. All are deeply set in gold. One is a ruby of remarkably fine color, another a sapphire, the third an aqua marine and the fourth an amethyst. Each one is perfect in color and cut. The knob is delicately chased in relief. The crowning beauty of the whole work is the base. This contains, in the place of the ordinary medallion, eight pieces of mosaic work in blue and white. One represents the Annunciation, the forms being perfect in color and expression. Another represents the crucifixion, the cross, Christ nailed to it, with Mary and St. John at the foot on either side in prayer. Another is a likeness of the Pope, perfect in every detail. Another, an emblem of the sacrament, contains two doves, some roses and bunches of grapes, so perfect that they seem to stand out in bas-relief. The passion is represented by a ladder, with roses intertwined. The eighth piece is a clear, white column, a...
