AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Belle Glade, Florida, an impoverished, quaint town located in the Everglades -- to outsiders, the laggard community possessed a divine aura of serenity. Yet, the ill-fated citizens of Jackson County were well aware of the local Sheriff s propensity to make scapegoats of the disadvantaged. Found savagely murdered, was a young civil attorney and several of his clients. Jack Pelletti, Special Agent with the FBI s Civil Liberties Unit, eagerly accepted the case. In an attempt to expose the killers, the agent finds himself befriending and accepting the help of unscrupulous sources. A seedy private eye, the town s madam, and an accused killer were amongst his closest allies. On the verge of deeming the investigation hopeless, Jack received a desperate cry in the dead of the night. The caller was an unlikely source, which inadvertently sent him whirling head first into the midst of the raging storm. In a town in which loyalty was frequently purchased by the highest bidder, Jack realizes that he must be extremely cautious, for his very life would depend upon it.
