Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Hope Delaney has had a head-on collision on her road to enlightenment. What will the future hold for a beautiful and rebellious woman who has burned all traditional bridges leading away from reality and been exiled to the World s End ranch? In Mary-Keith Dickinson s newest novel, Down to Dust, Hope has made a choice. Ripped from a safe, intellectual world of spiritual concepts, she is tossed into the underworld of her dark and wounded soul. Join Hope in the desert, where coyotes howl, unspeakable things moan, and the skeletons of her past rattle in the closet-threatening her newfound faith and forcing her to cry out for Divine strength as she fights for love and forgiveness. Mary-Keith Dickinson s Down to Dust is real, refreshing, creative, insightful, and honest. I love the relational God it reveals. It s a great read for anyone.especially people who recognize that they are in process. Book two of Hope Delaney s journey highlights the beautiful patience and humor of God that is available to all who have ears to hear and eyes to see. David Danielson Pastor of Impact Christian Fellowship, Kerrville, Texas A Divine Scavenger Hunt [book one in the Hope Delaney series] is a gutsy experiment in creating a conversation between God and a woman who has tried every depersonalized, non-god alternative. Page after page I wondered whether God would be able to hold his own against this witty, irreverent, disillusioned skeptic. He does. This is Christian spirituality from the underside - the real thing. Eugene Peterson Translator of The Message Bible.
