

The Rabbi Who Found Messiah: The Story of Yitzhak Kaduri and His Prophecies of the Endtime

By Carl Gallups

WND Books. Hardcover. Condition: New. 272 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 1.2in. Read the shocking story that the media have ignored and covered up. In 2007, two Israeli news publications, Israel Today and News First Class reported that the most famous Rabbi in Israels modern history, 108-year-old Yitzhak Kaduri, had left a cryptic death note revealing the name of the long-awaited Messiah. Within a year after the rabbis death, the note was reported to have been verified as authentic by some of Kaduris closest followers and then placed on Kaduris own website (Kaduri.net). The purported Kaduri message proclaimed that Messiahs name was Yehoshua, or Jesus. Its significance shocked the religious world. Shortly thereafter the furor began. The note immediately disappeared from Kaduris website. The media refused to report further upon the matter. The Kaduri family, and several others close to the Kaduri ministry, began to claim that the note was a forgery or a mere fabrication - a cruel joke. Now, author, senior pastor, radio talk show host, and former law enforcement officer Carl Gallups, uses his biblical knowledge and journalistic and investigative skills to explore the matter inside and out. His thorough and balanced reporting of the documented...
