Excerpt: .as surety, you must not consent to an extension of time when the note comes due, unless the person who has signed it gives his consent in writing. If the time of the note is to be extended it is better to write a new note and have the parties sign it. Notes Paid at a Distance. When you pay notes to parties living at a distance, request them to send it to the nearest bank for collection. You can then go there and make payment. This is the proper and most businesslike way to pay a note held by parties living at a distance. Payments on Notes. Do not accept interest or part payment of principal without having them indorsed upon the notes. All payments of principal and interest must appear as indorsements upon the back of the note. RULES FOR INDORSING NOTES AND BILLS. The word indorsement signifies a writing on the back of a bill or written instrument. The indorsement may be on any part of the note or on a paper attached to it, in ink or in pencil. But it is better that the indorsement be written on the back of such a paper and in ink to prevent erasure. When a note or bill is drawn payable to a person or his order, it is transferable only by indorsement. In law nothing else will hold parties to a note directly liable to the holder. When you receive money...
