Excerpt: . . . said, -- I have now a sensation that convinces me my departure is near. The heart-strings seem gently, but entirely loosened. When asked if she had any pain, she replied, No; but a new feeling. Just before she closed her eyes, she pressed the hand of her niece with tenderest affection, and said, -- I have the assurance which I have long prayed for. Shout! The next moment all was still. Her happy soul passed to its rest on the twelfth of July, 1791, in the eighty-fifth year of her age. She was the last survivor of the Epworth family. She died four months and nine days after her brother John; and her remains are interred in the same tomb. They were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided. It cannot be expected that we should attempt...
