Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 132 mm. Language: Hindi . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bin Udgam Ke Srota has been enthusiastically received by the Hindi world. The famous Hindi novelist Jainendra Kumar wrote: The very first few pages had hit my heart with sweet pangs. By the time I reached the end, I was amazed and overtaken by the sincerity of emotions and the power of expression. This novel had appears to me nothing short of a miracle., the reader cannot miss the sensations coming from his deepest soul that he misses in the humdrum of life. I got all this from Bin Udgam Ke Srota . If this novel has the grandeur of elevated thoughts, it has, in equal measures, the sweetness of genuine emotions. Nowadays, I find novels only full of thoughts and lacking in emotions. I m told that it is inevitable in this age of science. However, if literature is of any use, it has to compensate for the abstraction that the thinkers gift. In any case, literature should not be heavy and devoid of sweetness and the juices of life. I found sweetness and light both integrated and balanced in this work of Nirmal. The fact that he is very young and his literature is full of the spirit of life fills me with great hope. What has touched me the most is the impregnation of speed, movement and joy in this novel. Like some cataract breaking loose from the very root of life, flowing gracefully with verve and enthusiasm, it has the power to suddenly turn into a light shower from heaven. Nirmal embraces all the bitter as well as sweet experiences of life without the slightest hesitation - indeed, Nirmal is a rare...
