Kendra Simms will do anything to help an animal, including stabbing a policeman with a carrot by accident. Unfortunately, her wild antics end her up in court after she saves a small pot-bellied pig from a hunter. Her prosecutor, Hugh Cramer, has seen her there before and finds her harmless even if she is a nuisance. But he learns that her treasured animal shelter is up against some very high-handed politicians out to ruin it. As the prosecuting attorney, it means destroying Kendra to get rid of the rescue and up their property values. Hugh and Kendra want to be together after the farce of a lawsuit is dismissed, however, they are caught together by the press and their relationship is misconstrued purposefully so the public thinks they were illegally involved during the trial.
