

The Truth about Autism (Paperback)

By Kelly Strenge

Blurb, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . How do you explain autism to kids? This book is the answer. It's said that if you've met one child with autism, you've met ONE child with autism. Although there are general traits consistent with those on the spectrum that are used for diagnosis, it is given the term spectrum because of the very wide range of symptoms and severity from person to person. Kelly does a wonderful job of capturing both the diagnostic constants and the special nuances that make each person on the spectrum unique in his or her own way. Her book offers a kind and simplistic education about autism spectrum disorder from a child's perspective. She reminds the reader that above all, kindness and acceptance are what's most important. -Lisa Van Watermolen, Family Nurse Practitioner The Truth About Autism educates children in a very honest, light-hearted, and inspiring way. In this book kids will discover: -What autism is; -Common symptoms/behaviors of autistic children; -Challenges that children with autism spectrum disorders may encounter; -Ways to possibly improve symptoms of autism; -Being on the spectrum doesn't...
