Page Publishing, Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. A firsthand account of a two-year, all-encompassing experience of an RN caring for her husband in their home until his eventual death. After this experience, this nurse of thirty-five years felt a need to help people who are considering caring for their dependent elder yet are doubtful of their ability to do so. This is a not only a love story and memoir, but also a veritable textbook manual on planning and executing a loving and safe experience for all. Topics include significant information about the difference in types of long-term facilities available as well as actual nursing care practices, references to sources of help in the caring process, and a guide to ascertain ones chances of success in attempting this endeavor at home. Written in a caring and empathetic manner, her purpose is to allay caregiver fear and frustration at the lack of actual valuable information readily available to potential caregivers. A direct e-mail address for questions from readers is included. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
