Excerpt from School-Room Classics: Unconscious Tuition | The central thought of my doctrine assumes that the ultimate or total object of the teacher's profession is not the communication of knowledge of even, according to the favorite modern formula, the stimulating of the knowing faculty, if by the knowing faculty we understand a faculty quite distinguished and separate from the believing faculty, the sensibility, and the will. It has been generally admitted, for a long time. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
