Excerpt: . . . slip undoes more than a great many turns will wind again. Continuity of training is the great means of making the nervous system act infallibly right. A German writer has remarked: He who every day makes a fresh resolve is like one who, arriving at the edge of the ditch he is to leap, forever stops and returns for a fresh run. This leads to James third maxim, which is: Seize the very first possible opportunity to act on every resolution you make, and on every emotional prompting you may experience in the direction of the habits you aspire to gain. It is not in the moment of their forming, but in the moment of their producing motor effects, that resolves and aspirations communicate the new set to the brain. No matter how full a reservoir of maxims one may possess, and no matter...

Reviews

A fresh e book with a new viewpoint. It is among the most awesome ebook we have read through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Prof. Christelle Stark III

The best book i at any time read. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I realized this publication from my dad and i advised this book to understand.
