Pistol. --Trust none, For oaths are straws, mens faiths are wafer-cakes, And Hold-fast is the only dog, Ioy duck: Therefore, Caveto be thy counsellor! Henry V. Act ii. , Sc. 2. Satjgor, I have said, lay directly in our route, and we reached a village close to it on the evening of a day of severe travel. We were fatigued already, but the town was now so close to us that we did not hesitate to push on, and we arrived at the well-known spot shortly after dark. Selecting an empty shed in as lonely a part of the town as we could, we couked a hasty meal and lay down, determined to rise before dawn and again pursue our journey. One of our number was set to watch ere we retired to rest, and we depended upon him to give us warning should any suspicious person be observed. The night passed, and I arose, roused my followers, and long before day had dawned we were beyond the gates of the town. See, said I to my friend, our much-dreaded danger is past; we are now again on our way, and we shall leave this spot at least ten coss behind us before noon; beyond that there is nothing to fear, and we shall travel with light hearts. Alas! I spoke as my sanguine hope prompted me to do; but it was not fated to be as we thought. Again treachery had been at work,...
