Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . MIDCENTURY WTF: When most women miss a month, they re either pregnant or menopausal, but Pixie Pilar, Copy Chief of Packaged Goods at a Manhattan ad agency, has literally lost a month. From her last memory in June, 1957, to the moment she awakens at a fruit salad factory assembly line and proceeds to smash cantaloupes, a month has passed, and no one around her can tell her where she is or how she got there, because they speak a language she s never heard before. She makes it to the sheriff s office of this small town, where everyone is currently trapped due to a road-blocking, transmission line-breaking storm, and finally gets some information in English but nothing about her. Sheriff Vantrees spurs her to reveal her career girl struggles for clues, while he tries to keep her lawbreaking antics in check. The mystery is picked at like a knee scab, revealing a beau with a secret, Canadian contraband, and, of course, cantaloupes as the keys to unlock Pixie s recent past and steer her to a brighter future.
