

The Minor Apocalypse of Meena Krejci (Paperback)

By Susan Taylor Chehak

Foreverland Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It begins like a storm-with that pensive heavy stillness of dead air pressing in, with a soft rustle of the wind just barely stirring in the trees, a bruising over of the summer sky, a somber gray and yellow horizon glittery with lightning, bloated full of thunder, swept by sheets of rain-it begins when old man Krejci bumps his head. And then-like that same storm spent, blown past to leave the ground and the air around feeling new and fresh and washed crisp clean-the next morning when Meena peeks into her father s sun-spilled bedroom to find that he has not moved, but is still lying on the bed with his head flat back on the pillow, in just exactly the same way she left him there eight hours before, everything will be changed. It begins when Meena Krejci, not sure what to do and fearing she ll be blamed for the injuries that have caused her father s death, panics and takes flight, driving west across Nebraska and into Colorado, where she encounters an apocalypse-predicting madman, his captive sister-the troubled...
