

Brown Girl, Brownstones

By Paule Marshall

Dover Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 272 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.3in. x 0.7in. An unforgettable novel, written with pride and anger, with rebellion and tears. Herald Tribune Book Review Passionate, compelling . . . an impressive accomplishment. Saturday Review Remarkable for its courage, its color, and its natural control. The New Yorker Selina's mother wants to stay in Brooklyn and earn enough money to buy a brownstone row house, but her father dreams only of returning to his island home. Torn between a romantic nostalgia for the past and a driving ambition for the future, Selina also faces the everyday burdens of poverty and racism. Written by and about an African-American woman, this coming-of-age story unfolds during the Depression and World War II. Its setting a close-knit community of immigrants from Barbados is drawn from the author's own experience, as are the lilting accents and vivid idioms of the characters' speech. Paule Marshall's 1959 novel was among the first to portray the inner life of a young female African-American, as well as depicting the cross-cultural conflict between West Indians and American blacks. It remains a vibrant, compelling tale of self-discovery. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
