On the First Day of August, 1839 The Business Committee having reported the following resolutions - 1. Resolved, That we will neither vote for, nor support the election of any man for President, or Vice President of the United States, or for Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or for any legislative office, who is not in favor of the immediate Abolition Of Slavery. 2. Resolved, That every abolitionist who has a right to vote, be earnestly entreated to lose no opportunity to carry his abolition principles to the polls, and thereby cause our petitions to be heard through the medium of the ballot-box. 3. Whereas, The subject of nominating distinct anti-slavery candidates for offices in the gift of the people, has been presented to this Convention, - Therefore, Resolved, That it be recommended to abolitionists to adopt such course in their respective sections of country, in regard to this matter, as will, in their judgment, best subserve the cause of immediate abolition. Samuel Webb, Chairman of said Committee, addressed the Convention as follows: Allow me to embrace this opportunity to state some of the reasons which have induced me, and which I hope will incline you to vote for these resolutions. Upon the result of your deliberations rest the hopes and the fears of Our countrymen in chains. There was a time when the virtuous and the good freely and fearlessly exercised their right to think, - to write, - to print, - to publish, - to speak, and to act, in behalf of suffering humanity - When such men as Lay,...
