America Star Books, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There s nothing worse than the loss of your first love and that feeling stays with you forever. No matter what that person has done to you, it doesn t change. Dylan Walters spent most of his childhood and adolescence with Molly Stines, his first love. Molly, on the other hand, wanted something different than what their friends expected of her. Together, they made the perfect example of a modern day Bonnie and Clyde until the one day Dylan confessed his love for Molly. Molly didn t want to accept her feelings toward Dylan and her home life was a constant reminder of what she didn t want her life to become. In an attempt to protect herself, they parted to attend separate colleges after a small quarrel. On his twenty-first birthday, Dylan met his bride-to-be and soon made plans for their future together. At his bachelor party in Las Vegas, Dylan never expected to run into an old friend while celebrating his engagement. In a race against time, they rushed to make it back to Pennington Gap, Virginia, to his bride waiting for him. But, his heart beats in a different directionA[a A]or does it? They say you never let go of your first loveA[a A]and the truth is, even after death, they never let go of you.
